March 05, 2026: On Donald Trump's Mental State Part II

Since we are on the topic of auto-pens and Donald Trump's mental state, allow me to continue with the following example of both.

Melania Trump's Signature Looks a Lot Like Donald Trump's

In our first example, we have Melania Trump writing a letter to Donald's old pal (let's admit, he's no Benji! AMIRIGHT?!)(I mean moral support on taking over Ukraine is NOT the same as actually sending over USA mili-turds to help SEAL the deal!)

In protecting the innocence of these children, you will do more than serve Russia alone — you serve humanity itself. Such a bold idea transcends all human division, and you, Mr. Putin, are fit to implement this vision with a stroke of the pen today.

It is time.

Sincerely,

She may 'dot her I's - but she doesn't CROSS her T's'

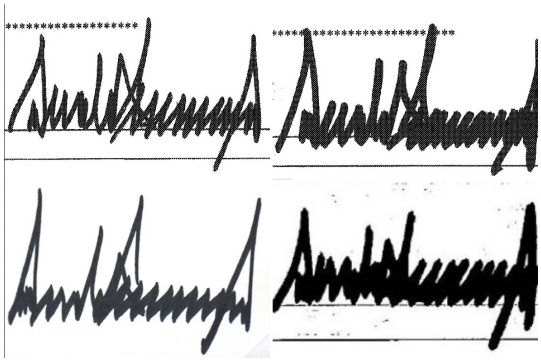
'Trump' (obviously)

The White House

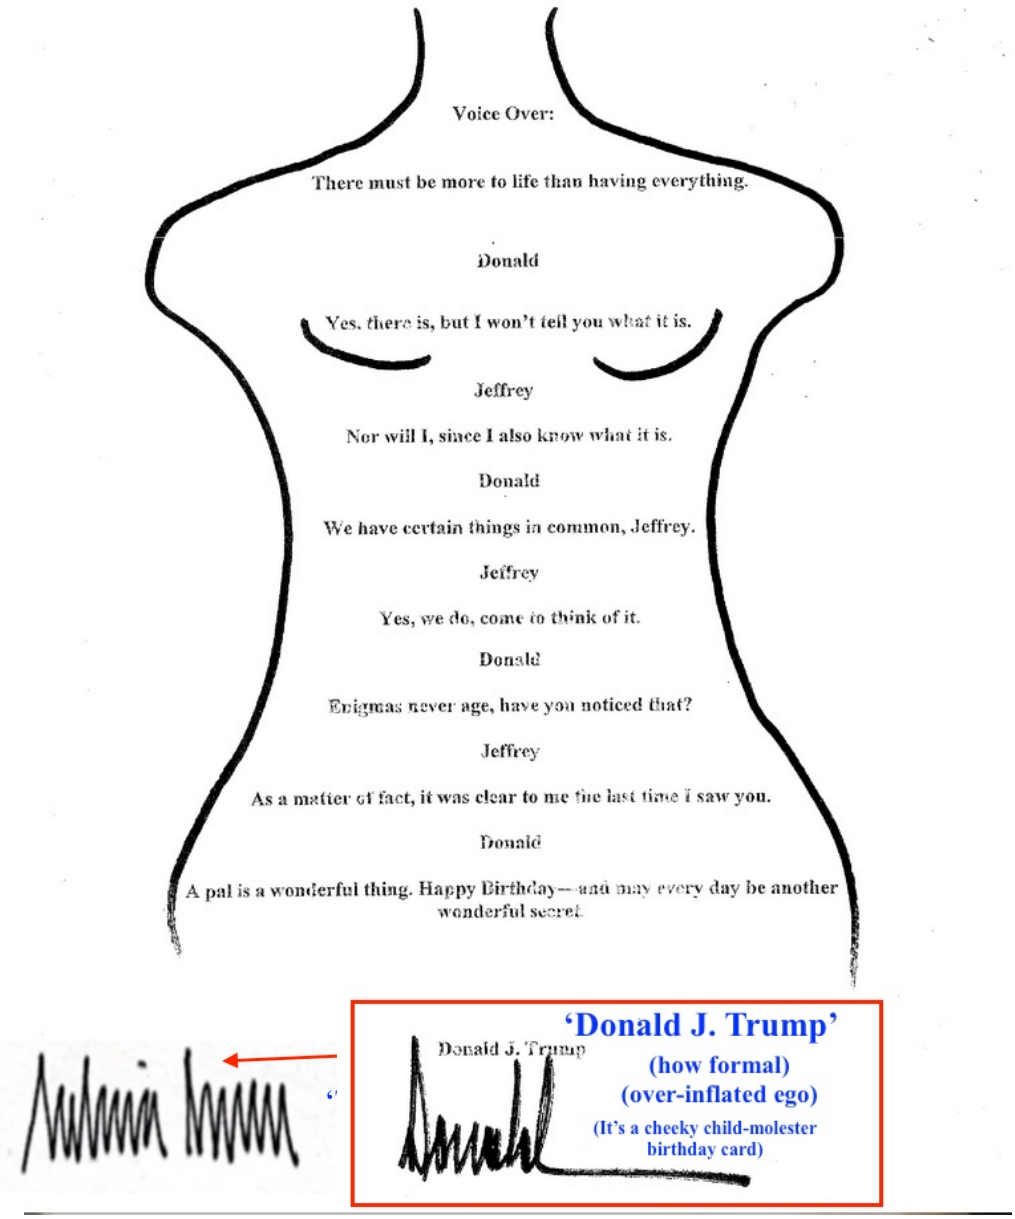
Melania Trump's letter to Putin

(Donald Doesn't EITHER!)
'DON'T CROSS THE T'S!'

(This dude is a fucking lunatic)



In our second example, we have Donald writing a letter:



The old man prosecutes a former president for using an 'auto pen' and won't even let his wife have her own signature!
THAT is the REAL DONALD TRUMP!
